Media Advisory

Massachusetts Gaming Commission to Host Educational Forum Focused on Diversity in the Development & Operations of Expanded Gaming
FORUM PARTICIPATION ANTICIPATED TO BE THE LARGEST AUDIENCE TO DATE

WHO: Members of the Massachusetts Gaming Commission including Chairman Steve Crosby; Commissioner Gayle Cameron; Commissioner James F. McHugh; Commissioner Bruce Stebbins and Commissioner Enrique Zuniga; Massachusetts Office of Access and Opportunity Assistant Secretary, Ronald Marlow and Massachusetts Supplier Diversity Office Executive Director, Reginald Nunnally

WHAT: The Massachusetts Gaming Commission (MGC) and esteemed panelists will gather for the sixth in a series of educational forums designed to discuss key issues associated with the introduction of expanded gaming. This educational forum will focus specifically on the issue of Diversity and Inclusion. The forum will feature panel discussions on methods to enhance workforce and supplier diversity in the development and operations of gaming facilities. Panelists will provide the Commission with objectives for MGC's consideration aimed at ensuring workforce diversity as the Commonwealth moves toward the arrival of expanded gaming. The forum will also include a panel on methods to increase supplier diversity.

Community members and interested parties are encouraged to connect with MGC's @MassGamingComm to view live tweets throughout the forum. If you are unable to attend the forum in person, MGC will provide a live stream located at <http://www.mass.gov/gaming/meetings/forum-diversity-and-inclusion-september-19-2012.html>

SPECIAL NOTE: Immediately following the forum, MGC commissioners will host a post-forum meeting to discuss diversity issues and information received at the forum.
